The Gaudet Middle School's robotics team, Red Shadow, wins the Director's Award for overall achievement in robot design and performance, research and teamwork in the third annual Rhode Island Robotics FIRST LEGO League Competition, which was held Saturday at East Providence High School. The team includes, from left, Jordan Watson, Patrick Fogerty, Ryan MacGowan and Kyle Thompson, all of them in the sixth grade. Red Shadow topped 40 other teams from 19 schools around Rhode Island and has been invited, along with winners of 46 other state championships, to compete in the FIRST LEGO League Invitational in Atlanta in April.
